JACK DEMPSEY GIVES PRIVATE CLASH TODAY

By LOUIS A. DOUGHER.

Jack Dempsey, challenger for the world's heavy-weight championship, matched to meet Jess Willard somewhere on July 4, arrived in Washington today to begin a week's exhibition at the Lyceum Theater, but before he attempts to appear on the stage he is to give a private exhibition to District officials, hoping to convince them that there is nothing illegal in his act. If the verdict is in his favor, Dempsey will then give all Washingtonians an opportunity to get a line on him.

Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, has completed arrangements with Roy Whipp to have the Utah slugger at his gymnasium for a private exhibition during the afternoon. Commissioner Gardiner, Conrad Syme, corporation counsel; John E. Laskey, United States District Attorney; Police Justice McMahon and Mayor Pughman, of Washington's police force, will be on hand to see Dempsey.

Are Hopeful of Acts.

Though both have been informed of the illegality of boxing in public in the District of Columbia, both Jack Kearns and Jack Dempsey feel sure that they will convince the Capital's officials of the harmlessness of their stage exhibition. Both stand ready to do anything suggested by the authorities.

In Baltimore last week Dempsey appeared at the Gayety Theater. He did the customary training stunts such as bag-punching, skipping the rope and shadow boxing; made a brief address to the public and then sparred three short rounds with his partner.

While it is not thought there will be the slightest opposition to Dempsey's training stunt or his sparring, the brief sparring with his partner may be found against local regulations. It is on this account that today's private exhibition has been arranged.

Goes to Walter Reed.

Before he leaves Washington Dempsey expects to visit the wounded men at Walter Reed and give them an exhibition of his skill with the gloves. As that is Government property, no laws can prevent his doing anything he wishes, and the Walter Reed heroes seem in for a real show. Lieut. Fred Hall Thomas, known in his ring days as Freddie Welsh, world's lightweight champion, is arranging for Dempsey's visit to Walter Reed.

Dempsey is sure to attract considerable attention wherever he goes this week. This is his first visit to Washington, and he will probably spend some of his spare time visiting places of interest. Washington has many lovers of boxing, even without a chance to see the sport, and they may be counted on to see the challenger before he leaves the Capital.

HARRY VARDON CAN'T COME TO AMERICA NEXT SUMMER

Harry Vardon, the famous English golf professional, will be unable to visit America next summer, he writes to a friend in New York, but he hopes to come in 1920 and bring Jimmy Draid with him.

"I should love to visit America," writes Vardon, "but I can't. England has been hard hit, as one of your papers recently had it. I wish to stay and see that all goes well here before I leave."

"I hope to go over in 1920 and take J. Braid with me. We feel sure of a good reception."

He's William Harrison Dempsey

Washingtonians have a chance to size up William Harrison Dempsey this week. William Harrison is going to battle Jess Willard on July 4 for the world's heavy-weight championship, though most folks think Jack Dempsey is down for that interesting mix-up.

When Dempsey was born his folks decided that William Harrison Dempsey was a mouth-filling name and gave it to the howling youngster. But when that shaver had grown and became a boxer he took the name made famous by "The Nonpareil," Jack Dempsey.

But he's William Harrison Dempsey to his folks just the same.

JIM FLYNN BACKING CHAMPION TO LAND

"Fireman" Jim Flynn, who is the only man who ever knocked out Jack Dempsey, though he later fell by the same way before the Utah slugger, is stringing with Jess Willard, believing "a good big man can always beat a good little one."

JIMMY WALSH WILL PLAY WITH BILL CLYMER'S LADS

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—"Derby Day" Bill Clymer, the newly appointed manager of the Seattle club of the Pacific Coast League, has purchased from the world's champions Outfielder Jimmy Walsh, upon whom all major league clubs have waived claim.

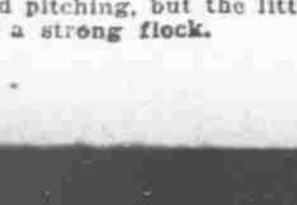

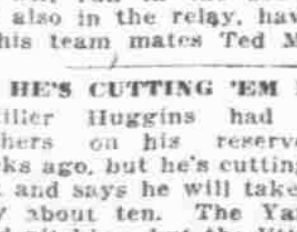

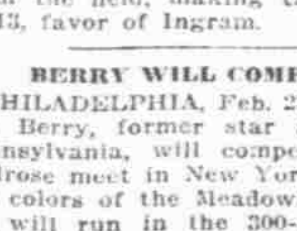

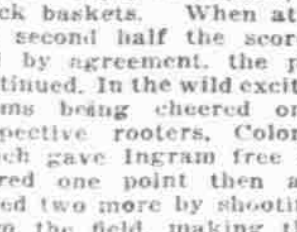

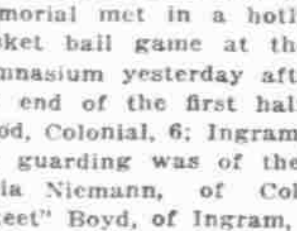

"Walsh is fast as a bullet right now," says Clymer, "and on the coast ought to hit around 300, according to my dope."

MISS BALLIN LEADS.
NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—President George T. Adee of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, has appointed a women's schedule committee to arrange a series of tournaments to the women's national championships, scheduled for Philadelphia, June 16.

WILL BEGIN MARCH 23.
NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Miller Huggins, manager of the Yankees, says that he expects to have the whole squad at work on March 23. Some of the pitchers will get a start at Hot Springs, but all will be at Jacksonville, Fla., by the date named.

Here's Jack Dempsey in Sunday Togs

Note the breadth and depth of the challenger's chest, also the size of those fists. Even when all dolled up, the Utah slugger can't hide the fact that he's a right hefty young fellow to be on the road to the world's championship.

INGRAM GIRLS VICTORIOUS OVER COLONIALS, 16-13

The basket ball teams of the Colonial School for Girls and Ingram Memorial met in a hotly contested basket ball game at the Epiphany gymnasium yesterday afternoon. At the end of the first half the score stood, Colonial, 6; Ingram, 4. Though the guarding was of the best, Virginia Niemann, of Colonial, and "Skeet" Boyd, of Ingram, made some crack baskets. When at the end of the second half the score was tied, and by agreement the play was continued. In the wild excitement, both teams being cheered on by their respective rooters, Colonial fouled, which gave Ingram free shot. They scored one point then and quickly added two more by shooting a basket from the field, making the score 16 to 13, favor of Ingram.

BERRY WILL COMPETE.
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 23.—J. Howard Berry, former star athlete at Pennsylvania, will compete in the Millrose meet in New York, sporting the colors of the Meadowbrook club. He will run in the 200-yard event and also in the relay, having as one of his team mates Ted Meredith.

HIS CUTTING 'EM DOWN.
Miller Huggins had twenty-six pitchers on his reserve list six weeks ago, but he's cutting 'em down fast and says he will take to Florida only about ten. The Yankees need good pitching, but the little manager has a strong flock.

WOULD PUT RITCHIE AGAINST LEONARD

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—While Ritchie's remarkable showing against Benny Leonard in San Francisco Friday night has greatly stimulated interest in the light-weight division to-day.

In local boxing circles the Ritchie-Leonard bout was the sole topic, and New York and New Jersey fans are figuring on the possibility of seeing the same pair in action in the East within the next few months.

Promoters who are vying with each other in the matter of corraling attractive cards had a new tack opened to them by Ritchie and Leonard, who want the change to square accounts with Ritchie over a longer distance he will be given the opportunity by the men who run boxing clubs in this vicinity.

Regardless of whether or not Ritchie could train down to the light-weight limit for a return bout with Leonard, a meeting between the two would be a powerful drawing card anywhere in the East. Ritchie weighed 130½ pounds for Leonard and greatly surprised Frisco fans by his condition and speed.

"SHANO" COLLINS SIGNS TO PLAY FOR COMISKEY

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—John Collins, the oldest member of the White Sox in point of service, has signed his contract for the coming season. John lives in the East and has spent the winter skating around on the ice and doing everything to keep in condition.

The signing of John makes certain a second team on the spring training trip. He always acts as manager of the Yauzigan. Collins alternates with Nemo Leibold in playing right field.

JOHNNY KILBANE MATCHED FOR PHILADELPHIA CLASH

CLEVELAND, Feb. 23.—Johnny Kilbane has been doing light work here since being discharged from the army, in which he was acting as a boxing instructor at Camp Sherman, and now he figures himself ready to return to the ring. He has signed articles to meet Frankie Brown in Philadelphia on March 10. It will be his first contest in almost two years.

"I am far from all in yet," says Kilbane, "and if any featherweights are looking for trouble, just let them get into communication with my manager. I'm ready for any of them."

BLAME AL TEARNEY.
